Mustaches for Maddie
By Chad Morris J F Morr
245 pages Realistic Fiction

Twelve-year-old Maddie has a great sense of humor, but it's hard to keep life fun when you've been diagnosed with a brain tumor. Maddie does her best to ignore the bullying she's been experiencing at school, and wears fake mustaches to help lighten people's moods. After her surgery, Maddie finds out that she's not entirely out of the woods yet. Based on a true story, Maddie is an inspiration to all who read about her optimistic attitude.

The Whiz Mob and the Grenadine Kid
By Colin Meloy J F Melo
432 pages Adventure

Charlie Fisher lives in Marseilles, France with his father, an American diplomat. When Charlie observes some young pickpockets near the city square one day, he is fascinated, and then shocked to realize that he was also one of their targets. Charlie bargains with the thieves to learn the tricks of the trade, but later questions his choices, as he finds himself pulled into a dangerous international adventure!

Mr. Lemoncello's Great Library Race
By Chris Grabenstein J F Grab 277 pages Mystery

In this exciting third installment of the Mr. Lemoncello's Library series, Kyle Keeley and his friends are amazed by Mr. Lemoncello's newest invention, the "Nonfictionator," which can create holograms of historical figures who talk to library patrons. The newest challenge is the Great Library Race, in which the children must master new games and puzzles, and travel by bookmobile and private jet to discover clues about famous people, all while simultaneously trying to defend Mr. Lemoncello's reputation.

The Haunted House Next Door
By Andres Miedoso J F Mied
122 pages Adventure

When Andres and his scientist parents move to a new house, they meet their next-door neighbor, Desmond Cole, a fearless eight-year-old who runs his own ghost patrol, looking for ghosts, monsters, and mischief-makers everywhere. Soon Andres discovers that his own house is haunted by a ghost named Zax, and Desmond springs into action. Can Andres muster the courage to help Desmond flush out all the ghosts in Kersville?
