

New from the Children's Dept.
AUGUST
2021

Kid Picks

Books for 3rd - 5th graders

Billy Miller Makes a Wish
By Kevin Henkes
J F Henk 179 pages Realistic Fiction

On his 8th birthday, Billy Miller makes a wish for something exciting to happen. Right away, all sorts of not-so-great (but very exciting) things start to happen. Billy can't help but think that his wish is the reason why. He starts to think a normal, boring summer is way better than any kind of excitement. Will things settle down for Billy and his family?

Treasure of the World
By Tara Sullivan
J F Sull 376 pages Realistic Fiction

Twelve-year-old Ana lives with her parents, grandmother, and brother Daniel in Bolivia. Her father and Daniel work in the mines nearby. Ana is determined to obtain an education so that she can avoid her fate of becoming a homemaker. However, when her brother becomes very ill from mining, she puts her dreams on hold to take her brother's place in the mines. Will Ana find a way to make her dreams come true while helping her family along the way?

Kingston and the Magician's Lost and Found
By Rucker Moses
J F Mose 275 pages Mystery

Four and a half years ago, Kingston's dad vanished through a mirror while performing a magic show. Shortly after, Kingston and his mom relocated to Brooklyn. Now it's time to return to Echo City to help Kingston's uncles save their home, a brownstone with their old magic shop on the first floor. Will Kingston find out what really happened to his father and discover if there is any magic left in his hometown?

Pawcasso
By Remy Lai
J F PAWCASSO 233 pages
Graphic Novel

Eleven-year-old Jo notices a dog with a shopping basket and money wandering down her street. Bored and lonely, Jo introduces the dog as her own, calling him Pawcasso. When a controversy develops over Pawcasso walking around town off-leash, Jo must face the lie she's let grow out of her control.

The Magic School Bus Explores Human Evolution
By Joanna Cole
J 599.938 Cole 55 pages
Juvenile Nonfiction

Join Ms. Frizzle and her class on an extraordinary field trip through time! After working on their individual family trees, the classmates go back

3.5 BYA (billion years ago) to see where it all began. Ride along on an exploration of the history of human evolution!

We Must Not Forget: Holocaust Stories of Survival and Resistance
By Deborah Hopkinson
J 940.531809 Hopk 346 pages
Juvenile Nonfiction

Sibert Honor author Deborah Hopkinson shares the stories of young people who resisted and survived the horrors of the Holocaust. The book is divided into geographical locations, with stories from Germany, the Netherlands, France, and Poland. Additional resources provide links to oral histories, interviews, and articles. WWII timelines are also included in each section.